

STATEMENT OF WILLIAM KESHISHYAN
CANDIDATE FOR CITY COUNCILMEMBER,
Regular and Unexpired Terms
(Unexpired term ending March 3, 2022)
GLENDALE CITY GENERAL AND SPECIAL MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS

Occupation: Businessman/Entrepreneur

William Keshishyan is seeking election to the Glendale City Council on March 3, 2020. Born & raised in Glendale and now a business owner and homeowner in Glendale, William is determined to bring sensible solutions to real problems that Glendalians care about and are impacted by everyday.

A graduate of the University of Southern California's School of Public Policy, William is the right choice for City Council. As the only candidate with a dedicated education in city infrastructure and planning, it's time to bring professional practices to our policy making.

As your next councilman, William will ensure that your voices will be heard by integrating new and innovative mediums for communication between you and City Hall. By choosing William, you are choosing stronger schools, improved public safety, affordable housing, integrated transportation systems and more public spaces for all.

Endorsed by former: LA City Attorney Carmen Trutanich, LA County Supervisor Michael Antonovich and President of the LA Police Protective League Tyler Izen, William is entrusted by respected members of our community.

William's vision for a better, united Glendale is not only revolutionary but essential to our city's success.

A better Glendale beings now - Vote for William, Vote for Glendale.
